A prewar, art deco, 16 story loft office building, built in 1928. The brick front still maintains the original setbacks and stone detailing. The lobby features marble walls with bronze detailing, gold glazed 20 FT ceilings, and restored marble and terrazzo floors. Bronze entrance doors enhance the beauty of the lobby. The neighborhood is a destination for creative businesses including: fashion, design, communications and the arts, as well as technology and media firms. Conveniently located close to Penn Station, Port Authority, Times Square and major subway lines.
