The best of both worlds. Lovingly maintained and updated, this 1920's gingerbread victorian delights with it's charm. Modern day amenities have been carefully integrated to preserve the character of this home. High ceilings and a serene color palette are bathed in natural light as you make your way through this welcoming layout. Large updated kitchen with granite countertops and stainless steel appliances. Lots of extra space in the basement, brand new washer/dryer and boiler. More bonus area and storage in garage with loft. Private, fenced in yard - perfect for play or just relaxing on a weekend. Walkable to the hamlet of Congers and nestled in between the Trailway at Congers Lake and Rockland Lake - you have easy access to hike, bike or run. Award-winning Clarkstown schools and only approximately twenty minutes north of NYC. This home is ready to write its next chapter...
